JOURNAL OF ALTERNATE DISPUTE RESOLUTION (JADR)

About Centre for Alternate Dispute Resolution

The justice delivery system in India has come under great stress due to several reasons. At the very same time due to the impact of globalization there is rapid increase in disputes amongst the parties which require speedy and effective resolution which the adversarial system was failed to deliver. In this context, dispute resolution through arbitration, mediation, Lok-Adalats& negotiation are seen as more effective, less time consuming and hassle free alternate form of dispute resolution in India. Considering its significance, Institute of Law, Nirma University has set up the Centre on Alternative Dispute Resolution to enhance knowledge, understanding and scope of ADR; and to create awareness of ADR as part of justice delivery system; to equip the students and other professional with practical aspect of arbitration, mediation and other ADR mechanism to take up independent career in this field.
